Missionary of the Week: Ed and Dana Dickinson (Israel)

Ministry Update:

We living close to shelter. Everything is cancelled. We are rejoicing in the present victories. Sirens and uncertainty of missile falls do make this time hard. Breakfast was interrupted again on this second day. We have Noam, our nephew, staying with us. Last night, Dana, Miriam, and Noam slept in the bomb shelter so the kids can feel safe. Dvora and I slept in the house/apt. We have ample time to get the shelter as the alerts give enough time to get there. Pray that the evil one can be bound and that Iran can regain its ancient glory as in the days of Esther and build for peace. Pray for the Dickinson family's protection.

If you would like any updates from a specific ministry, email the church office for more information.
